11 DAY TOUR — SUMMER 2010

Since the 1936 Vimy Pilgrimage, Canadians have been drawn to Europe's battlefields to honour and commemorate Canada's fallen and visit some of the most important sites of Canadian military history.

Join preeminent Canadian military historian Lee Windsor and award-winning high school teacher Blake Seward on tours of First and Second World War battlefields in:

YPRES – VIMY – BEAUMONT-HAMEL – DIEPPE – NORMANDY

Participants will be expected to undertake background research, lead one historical on-site discussion and make a biographical presentation on a Canadian soldier who is buried at one of the sites on the itinerary.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: Canadian High School
Social Studies/History Teachers

COST: $2,000 (plus cost of travel within Canada)

"I will be able to reach my students on a whole new level and ensure that they feel the importance and relevance of the wars in the 21st Century."

— Grade 10 Teacher

"We as colleagues did a lot of sharing; I have a lot of new ideas and certainly will return to the classroom with a determination that my students gain a greater understanding of Canada's role in these two global conflicts."
